

CONSULTANCY SOLUTIONS

Transactional advisory services

Getting the deal done

Ascend has one of the most experienced teams in commercial aviation today.

We work with the world's leading players to achieve their strategic goals in deals ranging from acquisitions and restructurings to financial and operational ventures.

Our focus is to help our clients succeed whatever the market conditions. We deliver expert and independent advice to assess value, calculate risk and get the deal done.

How Ascend can help your business

All over the world, tens of thousands of market opinions are sought using Ascend information. Our rich source of proprietary data sources and analytical capabilities are second to none.

We understand the issues surrounding transactions in the commercial aviation sector and can help you achieve the deal you want at the right price. We can help you navigate through complex operational, technical, legal, financial and cultural considerations.

Ascend: professional advisory services

- Evaluating risk and reward scenarios
- Deal structuring
- Deal authentication
- Due diligence
- Credit committee proposals